

68th World Health Assembly

Language English

With the start of the 68th World Health Assembly only a few days away, we invite you to check out a variety of useful documents, including the NCD Alliance advocacy briefing, information on our side events and an extensive calendar of other relevant side events here [1].

Official discussions on NCDs are scheduled for Friday 22nd and Saturday 23rd May, but we will be updating the NCD Alliance website with highlights from official discussions throughout the week.

For the first time ever, the World Health Assembly will be webcast live. Information can be found here [2]

In addition, WHO and the UN Foundation are partnering to produce World Health + SocialGood; a one-hour daily broadcast live from the Palace des Nations, offering the global audience an opportunity to engage on discussions taking place. Every day from Monday, May 18th through Friday, May 22nd at 16:00-17:00 CET//10:00am -11:00am EST the broadcast will provide insight into the major happenings of the day, while also offering exclusive content, conversations with experts, and an opportunity for viewers to submit their questions.
