As we get closer to the 2nd Global Week for Action on Noncommunicable Diseases (NCDs) - taking place from 2-8 September 2019 - the NCD Alliance invites you to share your plans with the world!

Taking place every year at the beginning of September under the campaign banner ENOUGH., the Global Week for Action on NCDs is a global call for action on commitments to improve health for all through NCD prevention and control. This year, we will harness the strengths of the NCD community and momentum toward the first United Nations High-level Meeting on Universal Health Coverage \(UHC\) [1] on 23 September, with a strong focus on ensuring healthy lives for all [2] by integrating NCDs across all aspects of UHC.

Get involved, take action!

Everyone can join in, including people living with, at risk of and affected by NCDs, civil society advocates, youth, government representatives and policy makers, economists, academics, experts, champions, and appropriate private sector. No matter what your resources and capacities are, you will find many ways to get involved and play your part on enoughncds.com [3]. Every action counts!

Share your plans with the NCD community

Inspire action by adding your plans for the week to the global Map of Impact [4]. Over 80 countries were represented in online and offline activities in 2018, reaching millions of people around the world.

We are part of the global movement saying ENOUGH.
and demanding action on NCDs as our right to health for all.
