
Patient Solidarity Day 2014 will focus on Universal Health Coverage

Language Undefined

Patient Solidarity Day, on 6 December 2014, will focus on efforts aligned with universal health coverage [1] and raising awareness about patient-centred healthcare.

The campaign is led by the International Alliance of Patients' Organizations [2] (IAPO). The Morris Moses Foundation is the founder of the initiative. They launched this campaign as a way of assisting suffering patients during the 2011 doctors strike and was observed by both Kenya and Uganda.
