

The HLM4 Political Declaration on NCDs and Mental Health is under serious threat

Language English

Urgent action needed!

This is a pivotal moment. A watered-down declaration will fail to protect lives and advance health equity. The importance of a concise, action-oriented Political Declaration with strong commitments is essential to achieving real progress on NCDs, which continue to be the world's leading cause of death.

Final Countdown: Last chance to shape #HLM4 outcome
Final negotiations are expected to end July 30. With one week left, the time to act is now.

Secretary of State in New York, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, and evidence-based declaration.
