Extended Description: 2017 has been an important year for NCD Alliance, both as an organisation and our ability to prepare the civil society movement for the 2018 UN High-Level Meeting on NCDs. Last year marked a new chapter for NCD Alliance as an organisation, as we evolved from being an informal alliance to being a standalone NGO registered in Switzerland.

Whilst this transition does not change the operations and strategic priorities of NCD Alliance, it has important implications, moving NCD Alliance to a membership model and opening up new opportunities for our network to become more formally and actively engaged in NCD Alliance, as both members and Board Members. These changes are geared to make NCD Alliance more inclusive, strengthen our sustainability, and harness members' and partners' strengths and activities.

The 2017 annual report provides a snapshot of the activities and achievements of NCD Alliance and our extensive constituency. It also includes a summary of financial statements. The report serves as a testament and heartfelt thank you to our community as we move ever closer towards meeting our common goal: to reduce the NCD burden for people everywhere.
